

By the end of Section 3, you should be able to answer the QUESTIONS HIGHLIGHTED IN YELLOW

INSTRUCTIONS:

This single Homework Assignment covers what you will learn through the ENTIRE course.

As you complete each section of the course, you should be able to answer more of the questions below.

At the end of each section, you will revisit this Homework Assignment and complete more of the answers you now understand. After you do, go back to the online course and it will show you which answers have been covered in the videos so far, but WILL NOT give you the answers, yet.

Once you have completed the final section of the online course, you will have learned the materials to be able to answer all of the questions and will be provided with the Answer Key.

MATCHING

1. Match the title of each section of a Business Plan with its general description:

- A. Executive Summary
- B. Business Description
- C. Industry Analysis and Market Strategies
- D. Competitive Analysis
- E. Marketing Plan
- F. Operations and Management Plan
- G. Financial Analysis

_____ One-page overview of the business that includes any major “asks” of investors

_____ Should cover three basic phases: Start-up, Operating break-even, Future/Growth

_____ Explanation of the general environment of the planned business

_____ A summary of research into other business (both exact and similar) that could present challenges for the new business

_____ An explanation of the methods and strategies for outreach to potential customers

_____ A more in-depth explanation of the industry, specific product/service proposed, the company’s missions and goals, and overall plans for start-up and future growth

_____ An explanation of the key members, key support personnel, possible outside supporters; as well a detailed breakdown of staffing and operation plans for the new business.

FILL IN THE BLANK:

1. The primary difference between a Small Business Owner and an Entrepreneur is that the product/service they are introducing is something _____.
2. When deciding if there is a market for a business’ product/service, it is important to remember that customers will only products it if they _____ or _____ it.
3. When developing a Financial Analysis in a Business Plan, it is helpful to look at three different phases of the project which are _____, _____, and _____.
4. To effectively connect with followers on social media, no more than _____% of the business’ postings should be directly selling your product or services.

5. The basic two reasons to develop a Business Plan are so you can _____ your thoughts for yourself and _____ your thoughts and ideas to others.
6. To paraphrase John Grisham, “Everybody wants to be a business owner. Very few people want to RUN a business.” Are you one of them? _____
7. TRUE or FALSE: _____ Starting a new business is a better route to success, especially for women and minorities.
8. It’s perfectly OK to be flexible with the parts included in a Business Plan because it is a _____ to help you work through the process.
9. The Executive Summary of a Business Plan shouldn’t really ever be longer than _____.
10. A _____ is a business structure with two or more people or companies.
11. In the Industry Analysis and Market Strategies section of a Business Plan, the primary objective is to make the reader (and yourself) more familiar with _____.
12. When developing the Competitive Analysis in a Business Plan, it is important to not only include direct competitors but also _____.
13. To get the most benefit out of developing the Operations and Management Plan of a Business Plan, it should not only include information about the prominent “main” team members, but also include a plan for _____.
14. TRUE or FALSE: _____ More than 10% of the businesses in the United States have more than 500 employees.
15. There are only two ways for a business to have money to operate; _____ and _____.
16. A business that only has one owner is called a _____.
17. A business that sells off shares of its ownership to investors is called a _____.
18. In this course, four basic ways a person can get into business were discussed. They are:
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
19. As covered in this course, the four main purposes of the US Small Business Administration are:
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
20. TRUE or FALSE: _____ When developing a Business Plan, it’s best to think the entire plan through before you start organizing your thoughts in writing.

If you have questions or need assistance, reach out to the bsnsAtlas team in our private Facebook group at: www.facebook.com/groups/bsnsAtlas